

Privacy Policy

Effective Date 12/08/14

User Documents and Files

Your documents and files (“USER DATA”) are only used as provided by you through and by our service to transmit as a fax to a recipient fax number you provide. USER DATA is not retained beyond the period necessary to send your fax including any retries.

Personally Identifying Information

If you provide your email address and other personally identifiable information we will use this to provide support, notify you of updates or other information we feel, in our sole discretion, is relevant to you. We may use this information to cross-market other of our products or services.

Other Data

The app collects other data uniquely identifying you, to present to you a history of your actions, to provide support to you and for the app in general. This data is accessible only by you and our support staff as needed to provide support to you or for the app in general.

Third Party Data Sharing

We do not share your data with 3rd parties except when required to by law.

Consent

Recognizing that it is common for our users to go long periods between using our app, if you wish to decline our privacy policy you must 1) notify us using the in-app Contact Support feature that you wish all Personally Identifying Information to be deleted, 2) discontinue using the app and 3) delete the app.

You must use the Contact Support feature, without deleting or modifying the embedded tracking information to notify us or we will not be able to identify you or comply.

You will no longer have the right to use the app or any unused pre-paid credit if you decline our privacy policy or changes to it.

Changes to Privacy Policy

We may make changes from time to time to our privacy policy. We will post those changes here. We explicitly disclaim any obligation to notify you in any other manner.

Contact Actual Software Inc

Use the in-app Contact Support feature.

support@actualsoftware.com

Actual Software Inc.

180 East Fifth Street, Suite 228

Saint Paul MN 55101